Goondiwindi, St George, Roma, Warwick and Stanthorpe

Looking to get back into the workforce? – call GTT in Warwick

Gateway To Training is once again providing a Skilling Queenslanders for Work course in Warwick in 2018. The year is shaping up to be a productive one with the widely recognised and productive Steady, Ready, Go! (SRG!) course having some available positions left.

This Steady, Ready, Go! program is an initiative of the Queensland Government and delivers tailored support and assistance to participants of all ages to help them gain nationally recognised skills and qualifications.

This is certainly a bonus for the Warwick region and surrounding areas. GTT is anticipating a keen and enthusiastic response from prospective clients and encourages people to seek advice on how they can be assisted into these free programs.

SRG! assists people to build foundation skills and gain qualifications required for them to improve their employment and training prospects. Currently SRG! provides accredited training in Certified III Business Administration or Cert III in Community Services, this incorporates work readiness skills and assistance and support with employment.

Project Officer for SRG! in Warwick, Emma Thompson is focused on teaching and inspiring clients in many areas to assist them into the workforce and would like to encourage people to take advantage of this fantastic free program and phone her at GTT on 0456 008 449 to register or to obtain more information.
