

GTT Statement of Commitment

Gateway To Training (GTT) is committed to providing services to young people to assist them with their transition into employment and / or further education and training.

Our organisation is committed to ensuring the safety and wellbeing of all young people and will endeavour to provide a safe and supportive service environment for GTT clients, staff and volunteers.

The following core values underpin how GTT management and staff operate and reflect the culture that we are committed to promoting within our organisation.

Integrity – being honest, transparent and accountable in all things and true to the role and duties entrusted to them whilst honouring and upholding the confidence and confidentiality, where appropriate, that others place in the organisation

Leadership – respectfully providing a strong and positive exemplar of fair and equitable decision making, attitude and behaviours on behalf of the organisation

Enterprise – competently guiding the organisation towards fulfilment of its objectives by adhering to sound governance principles; fostering innovative and entrepreneurial approaches; and committing the necessary time, thought, care and diligence so that the interests of SILO are appropriately served

Excellence – constantly striving to consistently provide high quality processes, products and services based on considered insights of best practice, research and local knowledge
